MR TOMDICK
Final answer Mr Barrant

MR BARRANT
If you said William, I would be given you a cheque for £300!! I am sorry!! Better luck next time!!!

MR TOMDICK
But, I have answered correctly!! He was born in Messina Sicily!! His father was Giovanni Florio and his Mother Guglielma Crollalanza!! He studied in Venice, Padua, and Mantua!! He arrived in England at the age of 24, to stay with his mother cousin, a Sicilian immigrant to Stratford-Upon-Avon that changed the family name to Shakespeare. He was to inherit the name William, from his Cousin, who died prematurely, to protect himself from the Inquisition, for the Crollalanza family were known to have Calvinist Sympathies!!! That is the reason why, most of his writings are about Italy, and the Italians!!!

This Question will give you £1000 Pounds.
A. Tom Jones, B: Lucky Luciano, C: Tommy Cooper, D: Charles Darwin.

MR TOMDICK
This is an easy one!! JEAN BAPTISTE DE LAMARCK

MR BARRANT
Are you sure?

MR TOMDICK
I am sure.

MR BARRANT
Better lack next time!! The correct answer is D: Charles Darwin.

MR TOMDICK
But that is not true!!!! The theory of Evolution was first proposed by LAMARCK in 1809 ironically the same year Charles Darwin was born!!! And again LAMARCK was to republishing his work on the Theory of Evolution in 1822, when Darwin was Only 13 years old!! He clearly pointed out the Modifications of common lineage in Animals, by way Of gradual changes!! He also stated clearly, that Changes in Animal species, was as a result to adaptation to the environment, and that such changes could be passed on the offspring, as inherited traits!!!! What is going on here???

MR BARRANT
