The worthless and desperate conditions of Human Existence, will always require a dimension where the laws of Quantum Mechanics, and Relativity are of no consequence!!! Hence, WHY, When, now and then, could be left unanswered!!!

Mankind endless quest for the ultimate truth, will ultimately suppress the biological clock responsible for self-preservation, and WHY WHEN, NOW, or THEN, will be left to the care of some other multi-cellular organisms, here, there, and then!!! Such creature ultimately would follow our irreversible destiny!!!
